

Mental Health and Wellness Program
Financial Practices

The Corvallis School District is dedicated to providing a free and appropriate public education to all students across our community. With that principal in mind, Mental Health and Wellness Services are provided at no cost to families.

This will mean that billing will be conducted only to third party payers, such as insurance companies, for the reimbursement of services.

Providing information below and signing this form provides authorization for the Corvallis School District to 1) verify insurance eligibility, and 2) submit a bill for services as appropriate to your insurance company.
